

Practice Questionnaire (Week 4)

1. Find employees whose department_id exists in the departments table.
 2. Find employees whose employee_id exists in the salaries table.
 3. Find departments that have employees assigned to them.
 4. Find departments that do not have any employees.
 5. Find employees who do not have salary records.
 6. Find employees who are not assigned to any project.
 7. Find employees who have salary records.
 8. Find departments where at least one employee exists.
 9. Find projects that have at least one employee assigned.
 10. Find projects with no employees assigned.
 11. Find employees who are not working on any project.
 12. Find departments with no employees.
 13. Find employees whose salary is greater than any salary in the HR department.
 14. Find projects whose budget is greater than any project budget in the IT department.
 15. Find employees whose salary is greater than all salaries in the Finance department.
-
1. Display all employee names and department names in a single column without duplicates.

2. Display all locations from departments and project locations without duplicates.
3. Combine employee emails and manager emails into one result.
4. Display all department names and project names including duplicates.
5. Combine all employee IDs from employees and employee_projects including duplicates.
6. Find employee IDs present in both employees and salaries tables.
7. Find department IDs present in both departments and employees tables.
8. Find employee IDs present in employees table but not in salaries table.
9. Find project IDs present in projects table but not in employee_projects table.
10. Find department IDs present in departments table but not in employees table.