

Practice Questionnaire (Week 4)

1. Find employees earning more than the average salary.
2. Find customers who have placed at least one order.
3. Find products whose price is greater than the cheapest product price.
4. Find employees working in the same department as 'John Doe'.
5. Find customers from countries where offices exist.
6. Find employees earning more than their department's average salary.
7. Find products that have never been ordered.
8. Find the second highest salary in the employees table.
9. Find customers who placed more orders than the average number of orders per customer.
10. Find departments with more employees than the average department size.
11. Find orders whose total amount is greater than the average order amount.
12. Find employees whose salary is equal to the maximum salary in their department.
13. Find customers who have never made any payment.
14. Find products that are more expensive than ALL products in the 'Classic Cars' product line.
15. Find employees who report to managers earning less than the average manager's salary.
16. Find the third highest salary without using LIMIT or TOP.
17. Find customers who ordered every product from a specific product line.
18. Find products ordered in every order.
19. Find employees whose salary is greater than at least 75% of all employee salaries.
20. Find the department with the highest average salary.
21. Find duplicate emails using subqueries.
22. Find customers who ordered on consecutive days.
23. Find managers managing more employees than any other manager.
24. Find products with prices higher than category average but lower than overall maximum.
25. Find customers whose total payments exceed the average customer's payment.
26. Find all employee names and customer names using UNION.

27. Find all countries that appear in both customers and offices tables using INTERSECT.
28. Find products that exist in the products table but were never ordered using EXCEPT / MINUS.
29. Display all city names from customers and offices tables including duplicates using UNION ALL.
30. Find customers and employees who belong to the same country using INTERSECT.
31. Find product codes present in orderdetails but missing from products table using EXCEPT.
32. Combine current employees and former employees into a single result using UNION.
33. Find customers who are not employees using EXCEPT / MINUS.
34. Display all unique phone numbers from suppliers and customers using UNION.
35. Find common product categories available in two different stores using INTERSECT.